We, the Class of 2013 take pride in dedicating this Yearbook to our favorite teachers:

Mr. Stephen Waisgerber

The Class of 2013 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Stephen Waisgerber. Mr. Waisgerber grew up in the town of Rockland and received his Undergraduate from Brandeis University in political science. He later received his Graduate degree from Bridgewater State University in counseling. Mr. Waisgerber moved on to work in three high schools before finding his place at MHS. He is currently married and raising two sons, both in the Marshfield School system and has worked with Coach Fisher as a part of the boys' basketball program for four years now.

Mr. Waisgerber joined our MHS community last year because of the strength of the school and has enjoyed working with his Social Studies Department "peeps." He encountered most of our class as juniors and immediately wowed us with his humor and knowledge. Mr. Waisgerber's passion for the subject makes learning history enjoyable. His excitement allows for the students to be as excited to be in class as he is. Every student in his class works to their greatest potential because he helps them along the way to be the best that they can be.

Mr. Waisgerber is a genuinely kind person. Even after we left his classroom as juniors, he has still made the effort to stop us in the hall to talk. He knows where most of us are going to school next year and can even name where we've been accepted if we haven't decided yet. From listening to a single one of his classes, you can tell that Mr. Waisgerber keeps in touch with many former students. This shows that he truly cares what his students achieve in their lives after high school. YZG is a term of endearment for one of our favorite teachers. Even students who aren't in his classes know his initials and are able to connect them to a block of wood left around as a hallpass. The lessons we have learned from Mr. Waisgerber will stay with us through graduation and long throughout our futures.

-Kathleen Tobin, Class of 2013

Mr. John Kopp

I believe dedicating the 2013 yearbook to Mr. Kopp is the correct decision. Mr. Kopp is a great teacher, starting the first day of school he welcomed and treated his students with respect. Mr. Kopp takes pride in his students and thrived in making his students succeed. Mr. Kopp always keeps you up to date on your grades and does anything in his power to help you, whether it is coming to school early or staying after for extra help, it was obvious he cares a great deal about his students. He would make students comfortable in the classroom and if he could tell something was bothering you he would briefly talk to you after class to check up on you and make sure everything was okay whether it was at home or in school. He did not limit his concern for his students to within the confines of his classroom--when seeing him in the hallways h e would always say hi and see how everything is going.

His passion for teaching influenced all students (especially me) to strive to be the best of our ability. When entering his classroom you could tell he wanted us to learn, he wasn't there just to get paid, he was there to teach us and for us to gain pride in our learning. Mr. Kopp's influence extends beyond High School, and makes all of his students want to succeed in whatever life path they choose.

Checking Out

Class History

Dear Class of 2013,

It's tough to believe that our four-year tenure at Marshfield High School has come to a close. Watching each and every one of us grow since the day we stepped into the building in 2009 has been an absolute joy. Coming into the high school as freshmen, some of us were nervous, while others felt infinite. Whether you were in one of these categories or not, we as a class came together as ONE. Our first order of business was Deck the Halls, in which we decorated our hallway based on Disney World. Although we lost Pride Week, we shocked the school when we were declared the winners of the Officer Dance-Off along with Penny Wars. Towards the end of the school year, we hosted Freshmen Fun Night, where we jumped on the moon bounce, painted each other's faces, mowed down snow cones, and much more. This event allowed us to unite as a class for the first time.

Finally escaping the terrors of freshman year, we entered our sophomore year of high school in the fall of 2010. During Deck the Halls, we re-created the magic of Elf in our small hallway. Our charity was Community Christmas, to whom we donated toys along with money to help the less fortunate in our community. This act of philanthropy was just one of the many ways we exhibited our RESPONSIBILITY in helping our town, and sure enough, we OWNED IT better than anyone. Also, how could any of us forget beating the Class of 2012 in Powderpuff? As our first school-wide event, we were able to raise over $3,000 to help fund for future class activities. I guess this ended up working out a bit better than our attempt to raise money by hosting a "Crave" freshman year...but we'll leave that one behind. In June 2011, we were officially half way done with our high school career, but in our minds, we felt like we were never going to get out.

Our junior year commenced in the fall of 2011. Finally upperclassmen, we gained a new sense of authority in the school, forcing us to make wise CHOICES as model students to the underclassmen. In Deck the Halls, our 2-Dimensional hallway solely decorated with our talented peers' artwork stunned its onlookers. Although our theme of Dr. Seuss' Oh, The Places You'll Go! failed to win the contest, we were crowned the winners of Penny Wars for the third year in a row, which is all that mattered to us anyways. With the desire to branch off from the typical prom venue, we raised enough money to celebrate our prom at Gillette Stadium on May 12, 2012. With a Revolution soccer game playing directly below us and a dance floor adjacent to our tables, every one of our classmates had the time of their lives. Our prom song, "First Date" by Blink-182, topped off a perfect night filled with memories that we'll cherish for a lifetime. You got to admit, we were a pretty good-looking bunch of teenagers walking down that red carpet in front of our whole town to see, weren't we?

Senior year- the year every high school kid looks forward to the most. As the fall of 2012 quickly dawned upon us, we had no worries during those first couple of months. Life was good and nothing was getting in our way of having a good time. Meeting on the Mountain brought us together as a class to bond with one another and reflect on our future goals for the year. Our class officers spoke to us, along with Mr. Keuther and our lovely advisor Mrs. Sangster. All eight individuals reminded us to keep working hard and to never give up on something we wanted. During our final Pride Week, we were ALL IN 100% in every event we competed in. Winning the pie eating contest, the relay, and Powderpuff, we beat the juniors by 1 point, earning us the Pride Week trophy for the first time in our four years together. Following Pride Week, we lived and breathed the Common App during the college application process until the month of January. On March 22, 2013, our Sadie Hawkins' Senior Night Out will take place at the Red Lion Inn, where we plan on dancing the night away. Towards the end of the year, we will have Field Day followed by our Senior Banquet at Plimoth Plantation on May 28, 2013--the last time we will party together as a class before graduation.

The final time we congregated as a class will be on our Graduation Day--Saturday, June 1, 2013. The nervous looks we signaled to each other walking in the doors our freshmen year will now be jubilant smiles looking out into the crowd of proud family members, friends, and teachers. We will finally be free- free to do whatever the heck we want with our lives. While some of us are ready to let go of our adolescence, others will immediately become nostalgic. As a class, our impact on Marshfield High School will be a legacy for years to come. We look forward to the future and wish each other the best. Just don't forget the little things we were fortunate enough to experience, such as homecoming dances, Friday night football games, Pep Rallies, and much more. Marshfield High School may just be a building, but the people and the lessons we learned here will forever be the reason for our success in the near future. We couldn't have spent our last four years with a better group of people than you guys. Keep on moving forward, 2013. We love you all.

Sincerely,
Class of 2013 Officers

Mrs. Sangster, Class Advisor

Four years ago we meet in the gym at Marshfield High School. Looking into the bleachers I saw students who were excited, anxious and probably a little scared. I remember telling you that the next four years would fly by and sure enough they did. It is hard to believe that you are now seniors leaving MHS and embarking on the next phase of your life.

For the past four years I have gotten to know many of you as students, volunteers and athletes. No matter where I have meet you each of you have impressed me with you abilities, eagerness to get involved and the kindness you have shown to not only your classmates, but to the entire school. During you four years here we have been "Great," "Awesome," "One," and "Together." Your positive attitude has shown through in all the challenges that you have been presented with and for this I am honored to have been your Class Advisor.

I know that amongst all of you there are doctors, lawyers, business men and women, laborers and wanderers. My advice to each of you is that when you walk across that stage be proud of what you have accomplished, strive for your dreams and make every moment count. Find something that makes you happy and be passionate about it and you will live a full life. Know what and who is important to you and never forget those that supported you in both good and bad times. The world awaits each of you and it is your decision what mark you chose to leave on it.

To the Class of 2013 I would like to say thank you for making the past four years so enjoyable. Follow your heart but know that you can always come home to MHS—the kitchen will always be open!

All the Best to the Class of 2013
Mrs. Sangster

JAVELINAS

Robert Acer

Memories: Epic trip to the condo in NH with the ill crew and relaxin at water tower.

Shari Brown

Memories: The past four years truly did fly by as quickly as everyone had warned me and it's hard to believe I'm not still a little freshman. I'll always remember the lack of singing actually done in Freshman year chorus, eating mashed potatoes in the middle of the softball field, lunch with Fran, Inside jokes from Lit, caf study discussions, and of course my lovely track ladies. I wouldn't have had my high school experience any other way!

Olivia Armstrong

Memories: Cross Country, Track and Field, Lunch bunch with RT, CC, SS, MM, EB, LC, and KM, Photo class with Almeida,Darkroom with CC and thank you to my favorite people at MHS: JS, MA, CG, and SW
"And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should..."

Senior Memories 2013

Luke Davin

My sophomore year AP History debates with Mr. Hern and my 4 years on the wrestling/ cross country teams

Orikaye Brown-West

Memories: One word.
Latin.

Justin Brosnan

Memories: During my mhs times, I had a lot of laughs. Without my friends idk how I would have made it. Forever will the memory of mr. paterno be with me. Toxic 6 will rule the world one day. If you were ever apart of the legendary freshman and sophomore year latin class i would like to say thank you for the most hilarious times ever experienced. Also I will not forget how outrageous mr childs was. I still wonder how big the raft is till this day. That guy sure was something else. All I know is that my friends and I got it cheap consistently while others were jockin. Forever I will remember my mhs experience and all the ridiculous events that happened and I wish we could do it again for four more years. Peace, love, and prosper - jbro
P.s. swag

Sarah Baker-Slater

Activities: color guard, drama club, yearbook, diversity club, marching band

Memories: I will always remember the amazing teachers that have taught me in my four years at MHS, the incredible friends that I have made such as Sam cole-reardon, and Sam sanborn, Murphy, jes, Mariah, and many many more, good times at color guard and other activities, the California trip sophomore year and much more. I'd especially like to thank Eric Sawtelle for all the amazingly fun times and for always being there for me through thick and thin, for being amazing, and not to mention, for being cute.

Elizabeth Blake

Memories: #HarryPotterWritingFort~, "I had to wake up early this morning to make Taylor his sandwich.", Millie is real life, Karsten Karsten Kenny, camp, Donut Law, Sanibel, Mr. Livingston, Before the Bells, Taco Bell, elibomrenob, The Beatles, Rosencrants and Guildenstern are Dead, "And that was the day Steve Irwin died.", dRAMa club, prahm2K12, and festival. Pete Gallagher

I'm gunna start this thing off by saying at the end of my 4 years, i actually enjoyed high school more than i would of ever imagined. Thanks to a graduating class filled with some awesome people with whom i have built many long lasting memories with. First off i got to mention all my friends. Too many to mention but you guys know all the crazy crap we did (lurnt squad). Mr. Kopp , and Ms.K for being the best teachers ever. Honorable mention to Arouca and our wild freshman class (raves included), Mr.T, Mrs.Consolati, Soccer with Cahill and BJ and Winter Track. I know that although this is the end of high school, its really only the beginning of so many great things for so many great people. Its been a fun ride but I'm certainly ready for the next step as is are everyone else in the class of 2013.
-Pete Gallagher

Adam Hebert

MHS Activities: DECA, Rams Den, Best Buddies, Track
Memories: "How many times have you walked by someone on the street or in the hallway and instead of saying hello you pretend you don't see them? The truth is that all of us have a need to be seen, acknowledged and appreciated. We are on a journey that can at times be very lonely. And one of the simplest and most effective ways to help our fellow traveler is to just smile and say hello."
Things I'll miss: my teachers Ms. Burm for teaching me everything I know, Ms. Ryan, Mr. K., Dennis for letting me work with him and taking me under his wing, thanks for the new vac, faculty staff, lunch ladies, classmates, friends, dances, sports, watching the games, GO RAMS!!!, Rams Den, DECA, Best Buddies Hopefully this won't sound like nonsense looking back, but here are some highlights from my four glorious years at MHS: Michael J. Hern. "India is an adolescent." "No Soup for You," Gatsby, & the thug life of Malcolm X. Recruiting Frisbee champions…everywhere. My foreign favorites, KT Hensarelight and Ebba Flower. Playing throughout high school with my best friends; Pops, SEMSBA, and the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra being my favorite performances. Pre-Hall-Pass-Inspection Hallway strolls. Getting licenses and getting lost. The endless pickup games in the summer. Traveling. Climbing. "Living life way up", Chaos, and "Incestuous Sheets". Getting accepted into College. Loving the friends I've made and the person I've become. Finally, Miguel- "Do You".

Rose Taylor

I'll always remember my trip in the summer of 2010 to China with CJ Rodger. I'll remember making my yearly trip to Martha's Vineyard, Summer 2012, with Courtney Cullen and Mary Mulligan. I'll remember going to New York City with Ivana Bailey in September 2012. I'll remember being welcomed to be a part of Marissa LaSalles family throughout the years. I'll remember my Junior Prom in May 2012 with Danny Ryan. I'll never forget joining Cross Country in freshman year and then quitting after 2 weeks, soon realizing running isn't my thing at all. Anyways…I'll always hope to never forget to do what makes me happy, and live with passion towards what I love and who I love.

Senior Wills

We, the Class of 2013 being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following.

For my class will I, Justin Brosnan, leave one thing, and one thing only (this goes for everybody graduating between 2014-2016). I will be leaving you all with the task of continuing the class of 2013's ignorance...if you fail with this then shame on you, don't let us down.

I, Sharilynn Brown, leave another year of dancing and singing at track to KM, HP, MG, and MM and endless Zumba trips and rides home to NO.

I, Lindsey Caputo, leave Leah Caputo my fortune/estate.

I, Chelsey Crabbe, leave my locker to our new school's foundation, my not-so-Grand Cherokee to anyone who listens to good music and drives with the sun roof open and my Ram Pride to the underclassmen because I will soon be just a memory.

I, Meghan Dalton, hereby leave the field hockey team and leo to MM, HP, AM, BS, and SG and JW, distance "runs" to KS, KC, OG, EV and BD, and the jeep to DD.

I, Luke Davin, leave the smelly boys locker room and the fake walls to my brother, Who will be a freshman next year.

I, Brendan Doherty, leave Alanna Moran the permission to tell her kids that her and I were high school sweethearts. I leave Mrs. Sangster my best wishes for Tyler and Danny in their futures, along with a (possible) new Class President. I hope the best for the Class of 2013, who I've had the honor of serving for the past four years of my life. I wouldn't have wanted to experience high school without any of you. Much love 2013.

I, Brent Garcia, leave the circle to Ryan Messina/Jared Garcia, I leave the library to Josh Megnia and then Jared Garcia, and I leave Eve to Ryan Messina.

I, Andrew Grant leave my sister Elisabeth the Maxima, assuming it isn't dead, a quieter house (including but not limited to: less whistling, less singing, and less Smeagol impressions), and finally, all my chores.

I, Josie Guarino, leave Elizabeth Vincent the 2mile.
For my class will I would like to leave one thing (this is going to the kids graduating 2014-2016). I would like to leave them with all the spirit I had with all the Marshfield sport teams. I hope that they can fulfill my spirit for hockey and if they don't, I'll be sad. Love, Brittany Hernon

I, Tara Hussey, leave Kaitlyn Sliver my captainship of the varsity cheerleading team. I also leave Gia Giorgio the responsibility to pass on my quotes at practice.

I, Allyson Jameson, a member of the class of 2013 being of sound mind and body, do herby bequeath the following, I leave Kelsey to find her own rides home, Mariah and lily to bug Dr.Smith for me, and Amanda to roam the halls for me.

I, Katlyn Jesse, leave (1) Madison Engren the long car rides to school, and all the times at my house. (2) Jess Harrington our random walks around the school during study.(3) Mel Archer my calculator for all the funny times in math class.

I, Schuyler Keating, leave Steph Gorman, Alyssa Peabody and Ali Tapper, "Ms. Pretty in Pink" for some Friday night good times and Tiger for unlimited snuggling. I leave Michaela Shaw, the Harvard Swim for the trips of her life time. I leave Matt Giurleo, Ryan Bartlett, and Jackie Waite, self-control, to continue their DECA duties with their "best friend."

I, Lauren Loschiavo, leave Hannah Mudge in charge of the MHS gymnastics team; and do not forget that if you need someone to talk to when I am away at college, Consolati is second-best at giving advice. I leave Kelsey Sullivan, Katy Harnish, and Laura Cowie-Haskell to have an amazing senior year at MHS. I will miss you all while I am away at college, but I hope you will visit often because I love you all so much. I leave Abbie Junior, to fend for herself at Dairy Queen. I'll miss singing, dancing and gossiping with you daily between the months of March and October. Enjoy high school while it lasts.

I, Maggie Mandile would like to leave the captaincy of the field hockey team to Jackie Waite, Brandi Schoenthaler, and Megan Masterson. Freddy's mustache to Alanna Moran, and most importantly, mothballs to Katherine Mandile.

I, Katie McGuiggan leave Erin Callahan OR and the girls basketball team. I leave Jackie Waite the new role of "Captain" and a pack of diet coke. I leave Melissa Megnia the swinging air conditioner in my car and AW&JP.

I, Melissa Miceli, leave my lady Ballers intensity and Titan, Ria my mom and dad, ksliv Celts tickets, Liam a hug, Mr. Frost a gift card, Jake my paintings and endless memories, Kat shampoo, mags coffee cake, Erin a scary voicemail from her mom, Sweens sour grapes, Jake Martin Pomella memories, chels sick dance moves and Kelsey tubes to float in the water with.

I, Andrea Mejia, leave the class of 2014 the privilege of being the last senior class to be in this beautiful school. I leave Jess and Vanessa all the wonderful times we had at yearbook and Drama Club. I leave my friends a path to success filled with laughter and enjoyment and all the memories we have shared love you.

I, Sarah Nicoll, leave the XC, track teams and the new track (when it's finished) in the hands of my lovely ladies- Kate, Bri, Elizabeth, Jen and Kerrin.

country mourns

© ADREES LATIF /REUTERS /LANDOV

Sadness blanketed the nation on December 14 as the tragic events at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Conn., were made known. At a memorial service held to honor the 26 victims and support the families and community, President Obama spoke, "As a community, you've inspired us, Newtown. In the face of indescribable violence, in the face of unconscionable evil, you've looked out for each other, and you've cared for one another, and you've loved one another. This is how Newtown will be remembered."

queen's jubilee

The 86-year-old Queen of England celebrated 60 years as reigning monarch during a 4-day Diamond Jubilee. The festivities drew a crowd of more than 1 million people. Other celebratory events happened throughout the year including national and overseas visits and several garden parties.

health care for all

The Affordable Care Act was deemed constitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court's 5-4 vote. The government plans to move forward with reforms that are intended to provide health care coverage for all people.

Within the first 24 hours of release, Apple reported 2 million orders for its iPhone 5. This record doubled the reported pre-orders for the previous iPhone 4S. Though most phones were delivered quickly, some purchasers had to wait a few weeks due to high demand

science & discoveries

trunk speak

A study in Current Biology reported that a South Korean elephant named Koshik could speak. The elephant used its trunk and throat to mimic his trainer's speech, and spoke the Korean words for "hello," "no," "good," "sit down" and "lie down."

out of this world

A rare astronomical event called the Venus transit made it possible for people to see the planet as it orbited around the sun. This occurrence lasted over 6 hours and won't be seen again for 100 years.

energy solutions

Energy conservation and sustainability were hot topics in Washington D.C. Natural gas was one energy source that was highly debated. Twenty-five percent of U.S. energy comes from natural gas because it is cleaner than other energy sources. However, the process of getting natural gas can cause water and air pollution.

kicking the habit

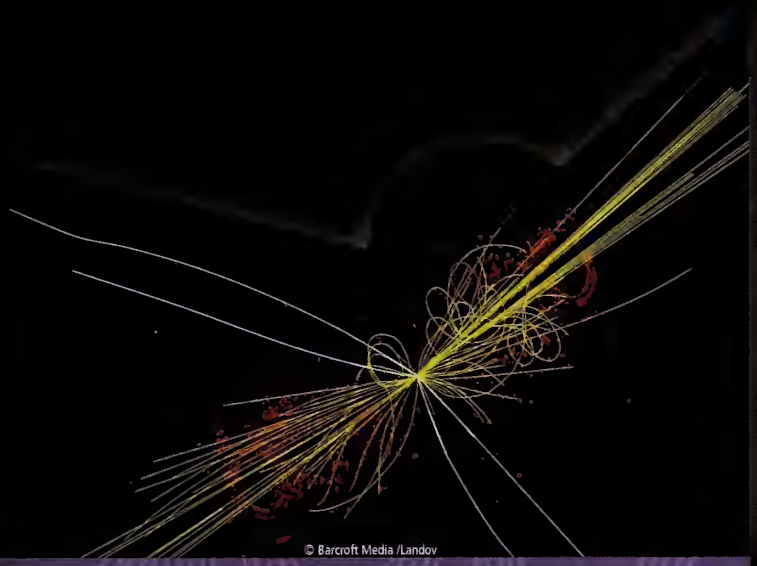
A study published in Science Translational Medicine announced a potential vaccine to help smokers kick the habit. The vaccine pumps antibodies from the kidneys through the bloodstream to halt nicotine's addictive qualities before it reaches the brain. Though it has only been tested on mice, scientists are hopeful it could also work for humans.

cave robbing spider

A new spider about the size of a silver dollar was found in the Pacific Northwest. The spider was nicknamed "cave robber" for where it lives and its long claws.

curiosity takes Mars

Mars rover Curiosity landed on the Red Planet after 8 months of travel for its 98-week mission. Curiosity wasn't the first vehicle to land on Mars, but was NASA's biggest and it contained the most research tools to uncover signs of any previous life on Mars.



Higgs particle

Physicists discovered the Higgs boson, a small particle that carries mass between other particles. The find was monumental since scientists were never able to verify its existence.

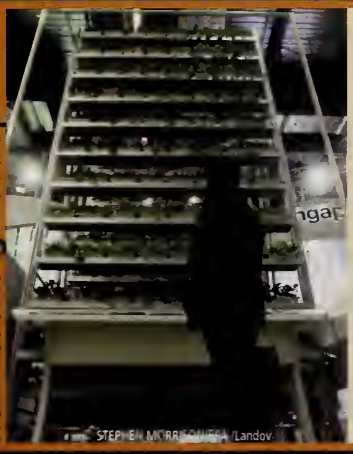
tastier tomatoes

Scientists determined the entire genome sequence of the tomato, which revealed additional information about the fruit's genetic structure. Researchers can learn how the species adapted over time and how to produce more tasty and nutritious varieties.

spray-on power

A team of mechanical engineers published research on their latest invention: spray-on, rechargeable batteries. They broke down the battery components and transformed them into liquid – a discovery that may eventually lead to spray-on batteries for tiles, glass, steel and cars.

nowhere to go but up



Sky Green Farms developed the first vertical, commercial-scale vegetable farm in Singapore. Vertical farms are pyramid-like structures made of metal with many levels containing trays of vegetables. The vertical farms are perfect for areas such as Singapore, where real estate is limited and typical farming practices take up too much space.

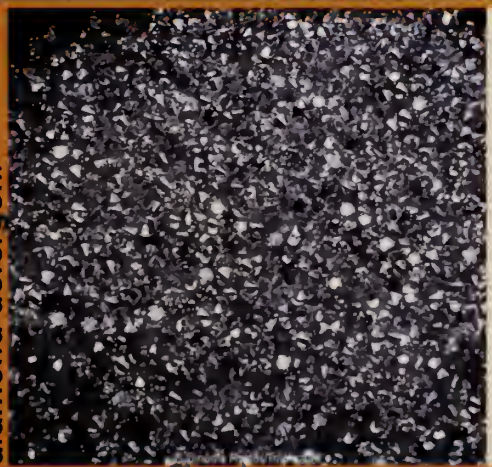
solar-powered plane

At 43.5 mph, Solar Impulse made its historic solar-powered intercontinental flight between Switzerland and Morocco, with a stop in Spain. The plane's 12,000 solar cells across its wingspan captured the sun's energy to run its motors and recharge the battery. The mission demonstrated the potential for pollution-free air travel.

coral finding in tropical reefs

A new coral species was discovered in the western part of the Coral Triangle. The coral lives on cave ceilings and is unique because it lacks the bacteria that other coral need to survive. It can tolerate low light levels in deep waters and has small polyp sizes, which cause it to grow slowly.

diamond detergent



A U.K. team of researchers discovered that very small pieces of carbon called nanodiamonds can help detergents more effectively clean clothing with cold water. These findings were part of the "Cold Water Cleaning Initiative" that aimed to find energy savings by replacing hot water with cold for household chores.

tech topics

virtual keyboard

Brookstone stores offered a virtual keyboard (manufactured by CTX Virtual Technologies) to consumers. It is the smallest and most affordable ($99 each) virtual keyboard of its kind. The keyboard image is projected via laser from a small key chain. Optical sensors track the user's finger movements and Bluetooth technology connects it back to the wireless device.

robot plays rock, paper, scissors

© TORU HANAI/Reuters /Landov

Physicists at the University of Tokyo created a robot that can play rock, paper, scissors and win 100% of the time against humans. The robot was programmed with a high-speed camera that senses human wrist motion in 1 millisecond and determines which move the player will choose before the motion is even made. Someday, similar technology might be used in assembly line work and even in hospitals.

the egg & i

© Eggasus

A new egg-shaped car called "Eggasus" joined the eco-friendly vehicle market. The 3-wheel car gives off zero emissions and is ideal for compact, urban spaces. "Eggasus" costs $5,000 and fits one person inside. It can reach 25 mph and travel a distance of about 50 miles.

digital pills

© Proteus Digital Health

The first digital pill was approved by the FDA. The digital chip, the size of a grain of sand, is implanted in a pill that is taken at the same time as the patient's medication. The chip sends an electric signal to a patch worn on the person's skin which sends the information to medical professionals for monitoring.

built for speed

© Luc Fusaro

French engineer Luc Fusaro developed customized shoes to enhance athletic performance. First, a digital model is made of the athlete's foot. Then, using special powder with a 3-D printing technique, the shoes are built for a perfect fit. The shoes can improve speed performance up to 3.5%.

engineered copter

© BARBARA L

Students at the University of Maryland Clark School of Engineering set a new (unofficial) record for flight time in the Gamera II, a helicopter powered by foot pedals and a hand crank. The machine weighed nearly 75 lbs. and stayed in the air for about 65 seconds at 9 ft. off the ground.

presto pie

The average American consumes 23 lbs. of pizza per year.

© iStockphoto/Thinkstock

A1 Concepts, a Netherlands-based company, plans to bring its pizza vending machine technology called "Let's Pizza" to the U.S. The machine takes 2.5 minutes to make the pizza and another minute to bake it. The 11-inch pizza sells for $5.95.

smart gloves

© Stockbyte/Thinkstock

A team of university students from the Ukraine won the coveted Software Design category in Microsoft's 2012 Imagine Cup. The group created Enable Talk gloves that sense movement and translate it to audible speech. The inventors' goal was to help users more easily communicate with people who don't know sign language.

Google glass

© PETER [illegible]

Google Glass was named one of TIME magazine's "Best Inventions of the Year." The glasses look ordinary, but when wearers look up and to the right they'll notice the difference. The glasses have a built-in computer that allows users to access Google tools; it also contains an earpiece and speaker. Google plans to release the glasses in 2014 for $1,500 each.

extreme crash sensor

© ICEdot

The ICEdot Crash Sensor was introduced to the market specifically for people who participate in high-risk sports. A GPS sensor is attached to the athlete's helmet. If it detects a high-impact fall, a 30-second countdown begins. The person must stop the countdown, or Bluetooth technology sends a message with GPS coordinates to the user's emergency contacts.

ebooks surpass hardcover

© MIKE KITTRELL/The Press-Register /Landov

American book publishers announced that for the first time they sold more ebooks than hardcover books, mostly due to the increasing number of e-readers. However, paperback books generated more revenue.

dancing shoes

GroundWave Shadow Trainers, a shoe prototype that helps teach people how to dance was designed by Tom Sykes from Loughborough University. Sensors in the shoes are connected to a smartphone app, which tracks the user's movement and provides feedback. The shoes were created to teach dance and encourage physical activity for kids.

the mini

The starting price of an iPad mini was $329.

© ROBERT GALBRAITH/Reuters /Landov

Apple's iPad mini, a smaller version of the iPad, launched to compete with small tablets produced by Google and Amazon. The new device has a 7.9 in. screen, is 7.2 mm. thick and weighs .68 lbs.

talking cars

© [illegible]/Thinkstock

A year-long study with "talking cars" was conducted by the Department of Transportation. Nearly 3,000 cars were equipped with wireless transmitters that sent out the car's location, speed and direction. With this data, the car warned the driver of potential dangers to prevent collisions.

tennis grand slams

Andy Murray and Serena Williams both won the Singles titles at the US Open. Murray defeated Novak Djokovic in set 5, making it his 1st Grand Slam title. Serena Williams continued to dominate by beating Victoria Azarenka, and earned her 15th Grand Slam title and 4th US Open championship win.

indy 500

Dario Franchitti placed first at the Indy 500 to earn his 3rd title. Franchitti drove for his teammate and former race winner Dan Wheldon, who passed away in a crash last year. He wore white glasses afterward in honor of Wheldon.

tour de France

Bradley Wiggins of Britain celebrated a win in the Tour de France and was the first Brit to ever win the race. Wiggins beat out 2nd place finisher, and Team Sky teammate Chris Froome, by more than a 3-minute margin.

golf's giants

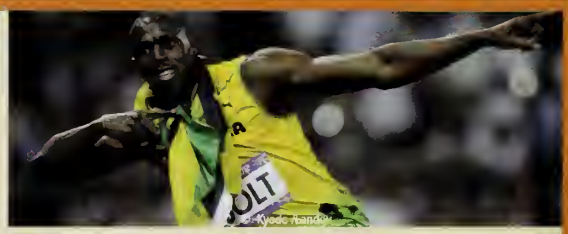
Four different players won each of this year's major golf championships. Bubba Watson finished 10 under and made both holes in a sudden-death play-off to win the Masters Tournament. The U.S. Open Championship went to Webb Simpson, who earned his 1st major title 1 stroke ahead of his closest opponents. Ernie Els' win in the Open Championship made Els the 8th player to win a major in 3 different decades. Rory McIlroy won the PGA Championship by a PGA-record 8 strokes.

basketball fever

The Indiana Fever won their first WNBA championship against the Minnesota Lynx in Game 4 with a final score of 87-78. Tamika Catchings of the Fever scored 25 points in the final game and earned the MVP award.

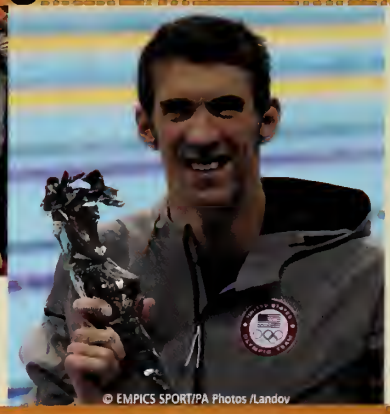
golden highlights - london olympics

Swimming Sensation
Missy Franklin won the hearts of many with her big smile and strong strokes at the games. She won gold in the 100-meter and 200-meter backstroke, as well as a record-setting gold and bronze in the women's relays.



Fastest Man
Usain Bolt made history by winning the 100, 200 and 4x100m relay events in back-to-back Olympic games, holding onto his World's Fastest Man title.

Fab Five
The women's U.S. Gymnastics team beat Russia to win gold in an exciting finish. Gymnast Gabby Douglas also won gold in the Individual All-Around.

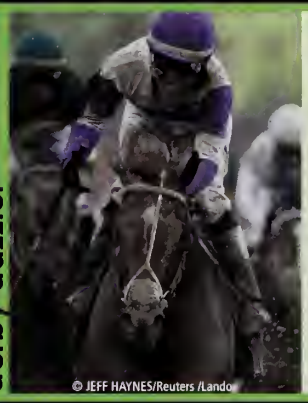


Most Medals
Swimmer Michael Phelps officially earned the title of most decorated Olympian with 22 career medals, 18 of which were gold. Phelps finished his career in London with 4 gold and 2 silver medals.

ravens fly to victory

The Baltimore Ravens and San Francisco 49ers faced off in Super Bowl XLVII, which was held in New Orleans. The Ravens took a 22 point lead when the stadium's power went out for nearly half an hour. Once the power returned, the 49ers tried to close the gap in a second-half surge but the Ravens held on for a 34-31 victory. The Ravens quarterback, Joe Flacco, earned the MVP award.

derby dazzler



I'll Have Another ran for the roses and won the Kentucky Derby by beating out Bodemeister in the final stretch. Only a few weeks later, I'll Have Another won again at the Preakness, and was on the path for the first Triple Crown title in 34 years. However, shortly following the Preakness, the champion developed tendonitis and was withdrawn from the Belmont Stakes.

heat trumps thunder

The Miami Heat won the NBA title over the Oklahoma City Thunder in Game 5 with a final score of 121-106. Team leader LeBron James earned the MVP award.

to the extreme

Los Angeles hosted the Summer X Games with 18 events held over a 4-day period for BMX, Motocross, Rally Car Racing and Skateboard. Bob Burnquist won his 22nd career medal at the Games and defended his title in the Skateboard Big Air. Vicki Golden won gold in the Motocross for the second year in a row, following an injury earlier in the year.

giant win

The San Francisco Giants won the World Series in just 4 games in the best-of-seven series against the Detroit Tigers. The win marked the Giants' 2nd World Series title in 3 years, the team's 7th title in the franchise's 129-year history.
